

Women's Officer - Alex Sanderson

- Alex is a councillor in Hammersmith and Fulham, and chairs the children's and education committee.
- She has been elected onto the Regional Executive Committee twice since 2015.
- She is a committed party activist, having previously been CLP secretary for 5 years, as well as being a long standing trade unionist.
- In her day job she runs a mental health and wellbeing charity.
- Alex is active in women's causes both in and out of the party, and mentors women who are thinking about standing for office or being active in public life.