

CLP Candidates Section 4 (Bexley, Bromley, Greenwich and Lewisham)

Linda Perks

- Linda is an elected councillor representing Charlton Ward in the Royal Borough of Greenwich and currently holds the Cabinet Finance & Resources portfolio. She retired as UNISON Regional Secretary in Greater London in 2017, having had a long and successful career as a trade union activist and then full time official in London and elsewhere in the UK
- Linda has previous experience of sitting on the London Labour Party Regional Executive Committee, having been elected vice chair 2005-2016. She played an important role in transforming the regional election strategy into an integrated London wide approach which is now proving to be very successful
- She has been a member of the Labour Party for 40 years, active at both ward and constituency level and in promoting trade union affiliation and liaison
- Linda is a lifelong socialist, believing in and promoting Labour values such as public service provision, support and protection for the most vulnerable, and social and economic development opportunities for working people and their families
- As a Regional Executive Committee member she would represent the views and interests of the constituency parties she represents, keeping in regular contact and being available to address local meetings and discuss local concerns if requested
